Note : 11.In response to the COVID-19 epidemic, the Ministry of Labor relaxed the requirements for applying for injury/sickness benefits with diagnosis of COVID-19 in May 2022. The sharp increase in applications for such cases impacted the review capacity of non-COVID-19 occupational injury/sickness benefits. When the epidemic eased, the Bureau of Labor Insurance accelerated the review of pending cases, resulting in an increase in approved cases from January to June 2024 compared with the same period in 2023. The situation has returned to normal since July 2024.
